FAST DE MUND'S TOBOGGAN

TAKES THE FAMOUS SPRINTING RACE FROM START TO FINISH UNEXTENDED.

Waldo Defeats Newmarket in the Juvenile Stake Mr. Belmont's Interesting Statement to the Public of the Situation.

New York, May 15 .- A crowd equal in size to that of Metropolitan Handicap day, was in attendance on the races at Belmont Park this afternoon and cheered the famous De Mund and the remaining quintette of lesser turf stars to victory in their re-spective races. Paul J. Rainey's colt triumphed in spective races. Paul J. Rainey's colt triumphed in the Toboggan Handieap and ran what was probably the most impressive race of his erratic career. Al-ways credited with extraordinary speed, but of doubtful stamina, the giant Goldfinch racer on this occasion thrilled the spectators with such a con-vincing display of the last-named quality that many horsemen present expressed the opinion that he could race the Suburban distance if trained for he could race the Suburban distance if trained for it. De Mund was destined for steeplechase racing in France this season and has been steadily schooled through the field during the past winter. It is said that he is one of the most accomplished green fencers in the country, and his owner believes that he will make good in sensational style abroad. In the actual running of the Toboggan it was a case of De Mund first and the rest nowhere. The beau of De Mund first and the rest nowhere. The beau tiful Belmont filly, Field Mouse, made an heroic but unavailing effort to overhaul the flying leaders and finished a meritorious second before the tiring and swerying Harrigan, on which a big betting coup was attempted. None of the remaining six starters was ever dangerous.

California form was vindicated with a v in the Juvenile Stakes as well as in the first and fifth races, F. A. Forsythe's stable being the conspicuous and disturbing factor in upsetting the pet theories of the Metropolitan contingent in this respect with Elfin Beau in the introductory dash and Waldo in the big two-year-old fixture, which latter took the measure of Madden's supposedly invincible Newmarket. His margin of victory was very small, however, and some criticised McIntyre for his ineffective and inadequate effort on the favorite. pair of infant racers singled out in the last furiong of an interesting and spectacular struggle and fought out the issue with rare speed and courage. The loss of the race to Newmarket was attributed to McIntyre's lack of a whip for use at the last moment. Walter Miller rode the winner, it being the former champion jockey's first appearance in the saddle since he left California. Elfin Beau, Medallion, Harrigan and Arasee were the remaining Cali fornia winter campaigners which distinguished them

After the last race August Belmont reviewed the situation to the assembled newspaper men briefly a follows: "Today's attendance settles the matter at far as the Jockey Club is concerned. It will continue to provide the highest class thoroughbred sport pos sible without interruption throughout this season a long as the present turf governing body exists.

"I am satisfied that racing in New York is now of a substantial footing and that people will come to the races under present conditions.

"The Pinkertons employed by the Jockey Club will rigidly enforce the Hart-Agnew law as it is interpreted by the courts of the state of New York. "All race tracks will enforce this law to th wish to make personal wag comply with the law or suffer expulsion from the

"Patrons of metropolitan racing will be compelled to do their wagering within legal limits. I am convinced that people will come. Some to bet an others for the sport itself."

I A Tadford recently abtained to the control of the con against Sol Lichtenstein for $9,436 because the lav yer employed by the noted bookmaker neglected tappear in his behalf. Lichtenstein said he did no owe Tedford the money, but rather than have at outstanding judgment against him he paid it today. "Skeets" Martin has been engaged to ride Sin Martin in the Epsom Derby.

W. A. Frazer, the famous novelist, was kicked abdomen and seriously injured by the hors Dandelion while walking in the paddock before th Lothario, by far the best colt shown at Pimlico cost only $125 as a yearling.

The hunt clubs have united on a three-days meet ing next fall. Their spring meeting of one day scheduled for June 2 has been declared off because it conflicted with the Belmont Park races. The A. D. Spreckels string, in charge of and run-ning in the name of George W. Berry, shipped ex-exceptionally well from California, Mr. Berry says that Glennadeane will win the big filly stake next

There have been rumors current that the state authorities, annoyed at the evasion of the anti-bet-ting law, upheld by the Appellate Division of the Supreme Court, had agents at Belmont Park or Supreme Court, had agents at Belmont Park of Thursday and that a private investigation, with a possible outcome of more drastic measures against the sport, was about to be launched. On the best authority it can be stated that no move of this kind is contemplated and that there was no state espion age at the course on the opening day.

S. C. HILDRETH'S B. C. 3, FITZ HERBERT, BY ETHELBERT—MORGANATIC.

Sam Hildreth has always been a sagacious man in the matter of purchasing race horses and exhibited his usual good judgment when he acquired possession of Fitz Herbert. His two-year-old career in the east was brilliant and no less so in California, where he was unquestionably the best of his age until an injury led to his retirement. It was due to this that he has not started this year, but he is understood to have fully recovered and is expected to take a prominent part in the stake racing to take place over the New York tracks. His successes last year included the Woodhaven Stakes at Aqueduct and half of the Elmhurst Stakes at Jamaica, in which he ran a dead heat with Trance. His last race last year was in the Garvanza Handicap at Santa Anita, in which, with 124 pounds up, he won at a mile in 1:375, a superb feat and showing what a great colt he is when at his best. This race took place December 19. In his first race in California, the Opening Handicap at Oakland, he was knocked back so far as to have no techance, but in his next start he won the Oakland Handicap at six and a half furlongs easily in 1:18 and in doing so set a new track record. The fact that in twenty-one starts as a two-year-old and all in excellent company he was but twice unplaced alone tells the story of his high class. His record and pedigree are as follows:

JOHN MADDEN HAS HOPES FOR SIR MARTIN

New York, May 15.—"I am greatly pleased with the form displayed so far by Sir Martin, and if he wins the Derby, I shall feel that my long career as a breeder of race horses has been crowned with a priceless reward," said John Madden after Sir Mar-tin's great win of last Wednesday at Newmarket. "Sir Martin is a wonderful horse in every way.

He has speed, stamina, courage and a splendid dis position. Some of the English critics have expressed a doubt as to his ability to go the Derby rou but if he is fit I think you'll see him disprove so a nice race in the Derby. His victory on Wednesday seems to indicate that he is well advanced in his raining and has become thoroughly acclimated. The Derby is a hard race to win and Sir Martin will mee the best three-year-olds in the world. If he is vic torious all Americans should take part in the cele bration."

HUCK DEFEATS FAVORITES

OUTFINISHES MUCH MORE FAVORED HORSES IN THE FRANK FEHR STAKES

Olambala Takes the Handicap and Looms Up for the Latonia Derby-Tom Hayward Repeats His Recent Good Race.

Louisville, Kr., May 15.—Wet weather this after-con accounted for a noticeable decrease in the usual Saturday attendance and marred what ofherwise would have been one of the best day's sport offered at Churchill Downs. The original card held out much promise, but the slippery track caused numer ous withdrawals, excepting in the second race, in which owners allowed their representatives to face the issue without regard to the going.

The Frank Fehr Stakes, under selling conditions, distance one mile, was accounted the stellar offering, but the handicap at the same distance that preceded it promised a better contest and held stronger in-terest. Speculation on these races was heavy and they both furnished spirited finishes.

The stake race resulted in a victory for T. C. McDowell's useful racer, Huck, and his victory was well received, mainly through the popularity of his owner, as the colt was at a long price. In the handicap enthusiasm was aroused by the grand perform ance of J. G. Greener's Olambala, which decisively took the measure of T. M. Green and Hanbridge, and incidentally, became second favorite for the La-tonia Derby through the impressiveness of his vic-

In the running of the stake race the slippery going enabled Dainty Dame to go into the lead from the outset, but Page's alertness on Crystal Maid did not afford the leader much opportunity to get over a length away. Crystal Maid wore Dainty Dame down after a half mile had been gone and her back-ers became jubilant at this point, as it appeared that she would be the winner. But Huck suddenly loomed into prominence by a magnificent effort that carried him to the leader with a rush and, after a sharp hast-sixteenth drive, passed her into an easy victory. Wool Sandals, from a slow beginning, came fast in stretch and took third place.

Hanbridge and T. M. Green were thought to have the handicap between them after the withdrawal of Old Honesty and Campeon, but Olambala showed that Old Honesty and Campeon, but Olambala showed that he can take their measure under like conditions by the easy manner in which he disposed of them. Hanbridge had an impost of 115 pounds and Powers blundered in taking him out to race T. M. Green into subjection during the early running, Olambala, which had been rated with good judgment close to the leaders, was benefited by the fast pace and when called on responded with a rush that easily placed him in the lead and a subsequent winner by a good margin. The fight for second place between T. M. Green and Hanbridge was spirited, the former landing it by a neck. Dr. Barkley, the only other starter, was beaten off. Because of the small number of starters, the show betting on the race was omitted. omitted.

The fifth race, for two-year-olds, at four and a half furlongs, went to the outsider, The Fad. He won with ridiculous ease from a good band. The main interest in the race centered in the performance of Barleythorpe, owned by H. M. Ziegler. The cott was making his debut under colors, but had worked phenomenally, and by the wiseacres is considered the superior of any two-year-old shown here. He followed close up in the early racing, but after going three furlougs tired badly and finished far back. The Fad won cantering from Calash, with anoth first-time starter here, Paul Davis, in third p The poor showing of Henderson and Relluf attributed to the bad going.

H. G. Bedwell's Tom Hayward proved himself a superior mud runner by the easy manner in which he raced the speedy Cymbal to defeat in the first three-quarters of the mile and a sixteenth race that closed the afternoon's program. Cymbal, however, held on gamely to the end and saved second place from First Peep. Tom Hayward was the medium of heavy betting in out-of-town handbooks, and the latter's agents at the last minute deluged the mutuel machine workers with commissions, forcing the price about him down to a small figure.

The opener furnished a spirited battle between Enfield and Marbles for the greater part of the way, but the former drew into a commanding lead near the

Sixteen mediocre two-year-olds started in the ond race and Eva Tanguay proved the luckiest, win-ning from Brunhilde. The latter was best, but her rider falled to avoid the jam that followed soon after the start and was forced back to a rear position, from where he had to work his way up gradually and was successful in getting up in time to take second place in the last stride from Lou Linier.

Jockey Kennedy was fined $100 by the starter for his disobedience at the post in the first race. This is the severest fine inflicted on a jockey by the starter in some time.

Prince Ahmed, while at exercise this morning, got the better of his rider and ran away three miles. The mishap is not considered hurtful to the horse in his present condition.

Ormuz, which has been receiving a steady with a view to winning a good race before the of this meeting, fell dame just as he completed a sensational mile trial this morning.

pleted a sensational mile trial this morning. It is unlikely that he will be a starter again, as both his front tendons rave way.

The exodus of horsemen for Toronto, Can., will begin tomorrow. Four carloads of horses are to be shipped and include consignments from P. M. Civili, George Hendrie (including Michael Angelo), J. W. May, H. G. Bedwell, P. J. Knebelkamp, J. S. Ward and the jumpers owned by F. A. Middleton.

J. G. Greener, after witnessing the easy victory of his colt, Olambala, was highly elated and deciared him a positive starter in the Latonia Derby. His weight in that event will be 114.

NIMROD TOO MUCH FOR MAHER.

At Newmarket, Eng., Thursday, the Americans scored on C. Newton's Sandbath in the Payne Stakes, scored on C. Newton's Sandbath in the Payne Stakes, which was the chief event on the card, and in doing so upset the presumed good thing in J. Buchanan's Diamond Stud, which ran very currishly. Diamond Stud has been backed for the Derby.

It is not often that a horse gets the better of Maher, but G. Blackwell's Nimrod proved one too many for him. Nimrod was to run in the opening race, but behaved like a mad thing in the paddock, and after throwing his jockey three times and doing the best to roll over him the number had to be withdrawn.

Sir Martin was again a good second favorite for the Epsom Derby, odds of 11 to 2 being taken to some good money, and Bayardo, which has been buf-feted about in the market this week like a shuttle-cock, was backed from 10 to 1 to 190 to 12.

A dramatic incident in connection with Bayardo occurred at Newmarket, recalling scenes which one reads about in books of racing reminiscences. Mr. Fairie, owner of the colt, went up to a group of leading bookmakers and challenged them to bet.

"I am prepared to make a big bet about Bayardo for place for the Derby. Has any one of you pluck to lay me?" he said.

'What do you want, Mr. Fairie?' asked the book-

"I want $50,000 to $25,000," was the answer,
There was silence for a moment, then Charlie Hibbard said: "I'll lay you $10,000 to $5,000."

"I have told you what I want and if you won't lay that I'll not have a bet at all," was the reply.

No business was done.

IN THE COURT OF LAST RESORT.

In the "advance information" cases before the New York Court of Appeals Assistant District Attorney Elder represented the people, while Joseph S Auerbach and William C. De Witt appeared for the defendants. The cases were on appeal from the order of the Appellate Division affirming the County Court of Kings County in sustaining a demurrer to the Indictment. Mr. Elder in his argument con-tended that the advance information slip, containing the names of horses and jockeys, together with the weights for each race, was "a gambling device pure and simple, as it was sold to bookmakers to aid them in their business." Lawyer Auerbach said that a gambling device was something tangible and that a common gambler was one who had a device used in a gambling house only and not on the street or elsewhere. Mr. Auerbach argued that the publi-cation of the names of horses, jockeys, weights and past performances was no crime, and that some of newspapers contained far more information of this nature than the advance slips.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

The cable rumor about Colin's condition being les than satisfactory was evidently out of line, as the American champion is taking daily work at Beck-hampton, Eng., and is said to be in fine fettle.

Colonel Hall Walker, the Irish turfman, has had the misfortune to lose a half-brother to Minoru. Mother Siegel, dam of the latter, foaled a fine colt to Count Schomberg on the same day that the king's colt triumphed in the Two Thousand Guineas, but the roungster died three days later.

youngefer died three days later.

The London Sportsman says: "An epidemic of coughing has broken out in W. K. Vanderbilt's stable at Poissy, which, although not thought to be serious, has interfered with the work of Oversight, Northeast, Sea Sick II. and Negofol in particular." This accounts for the late poor form of the Vanderbilt horses in the French stakes.

Winner—B. g, by Blues—Bunch (trained by A. G. Blakeley).

Went to post at 4:33. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second and third driving. Arasee drew out in the first stride and, setting a stiff pace, gradually increased his advantage and finally won in a canter. Norbitt, forced out in the early running, closed up rapidly on the outside in the last half into a fast going second. Traveller, forwardly placed early, was bering out steadily on the turns and finally bolted, but finished a close third on the extreme outside. Earl G. ran forwardly throughout and was a persistent and close up fourth. Hill Top, nearly left, closed a big gap in a cracking effort. Lad of Langden, well up all the way, was gaining slowly at the end. Dandelion, badly outpaced from the start, ran like a suker. Taboo and County Fair both showed speed for six furlongs. The winner was entered for $1,500; no bid.

Winner—Ch, c, by Ornus—Blue and White, by Virgil (trained by R. Cassady).

Went to post at 4:07. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second and third driving. Olambula followed the leaders close up for three-quarters and, passing them like a flash when called on, held his opponents safe through the stretch. T. M. Green, showing high speed, set a fast pace for three-quarters and tired, but outgamed Hanbridge in the closing drive. Hanbridge was hard ridden throughout and tired under his heavy impost in the last furlong. Dr. Barkley was a distant trailer all the way and probably disliked the going.

Winner—Ch. g., by Allan-a-Dale—Miss Gussie (trained by G. Denny).

Went to post at 4:47. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily, second and third driving. Huck, favored by the sticky going, followed the leaders closely for the first three-quarters and, wearing Crystal Maid down in the last furlong, won going away. Crystal Maid raced Dainty Dame into defeat before going a half and set a fast pace, but tired in the stretch from her early efforts. Wool Sándals came from far back in the last quarter and finished gamely. Dainty Dame into defeat before going almays prominent for three-quarters and will do better under stronger riding. Aspirin was in close quarters for the first half, but ran poorly, Royal Tourist probably disliked the going and ran poorly, and the same applies to Sir Cleges. LATEST PERFORMANCES OF HORSES ENTERED MONDAY.

The small figure under "Str." shows the distance the horse was ahead of that next in the race. The small figure under "Fin."—unless the horse won—shows the number of lengths the horse was behind the winner."

The "odds" figures in connection with horses at the present Louisville meeting are the calculations made by Daily Racing Form and based on mutuel pools. They are published in such form for the mere purpose of mechanical uniformity.

FORTY-SIX YEARLINGS AT NURSERY STUD.

Sixteen of the Youngsters Are by Rock Sand-Other by Hastings, Octagon and Singleton.

Lexington, Ky., May 15.—August Belmont, chairman of the Jockey Club, and one of America's money barons, has a fine collection of yearlings at his Nursery Stud, the home of the $125,000 Rock Sand, now nine years old, imported from England in the summer of 1906.

The yearlings number forty-six, of which twenty six are coits and twenty fillies. Eight of the coits and eight of the fillies are by Rock Sand, and they represent the first of the get in this country of the illustrious son of Sainfoin and Roquebrune, which, had Sir James Miller lived, could probably not have been bought out of England for twice the sum that r. Belmont paid for him.

Ten of the colts and four of the fillies are by Hastings, now the second sire at the Nursery. There are four colts and seven fillies by Octagon, which was sent during the past winter along with the stallion Ethelbert and seventeen mares to a farm stallion Ethelbert and seventeen mares to a farm that Mr. Belmont maintains in France. The young St. Simon horse, Singleton, now the third stallion in this stud. is represented by one

HOW TARAL STARTED THE HORSES.

The post of official starter of Austria-Hungary was offered to Fred Taral before he left that country. He declined the place with thanks and said he has experienced all the bitterness of such an unthankful office. He told his friends how, on reaching a race meeting close to New York, he found he could not draw the weight to ride, and so the president, rather than let him go away empty-handed, appointed him to fill the place of an absent official, the starter. Taral, thinking the job an easy one, accepted, and going down to the post thought he had got the lot away on good terms until the howling of the crowd made it clear that more than one was intent on his scalp. He made tracks, with a yelling crowd following him, and got safely to the railway station, where he hid until he was able to creep away by the next train for New York, vowing that he would never again bid for such an onerous position.

PATRIOTISM INVOLVED IN RACING ABROAD

Somebody asked, August Belmont, chairman of the Jockey Club, the other day why practically all the best race horses here last season, including Rallot. Colin, Fair Play, Priscillian and Sir Martin, had been sent to England instead of being kept here to been sent to England instead of being kept here to maintain the standard of the sport. Mr. Belmont readily replied that while a desire to capture some of the rich classics in England was one reason, it was also the aim of Messrs, Keene, Whitney and himself to win some of the big stakes with horses bred in this country, that American pride and patriotism might be aroused and the real value of the breeding industry here might be finally appreciated.

TUESDAY.

NEVER STARTED. Every move connected with same has been watched by me, and I expect same to win as easily as discovered by me at Belmont Park last year, which had never started, and won the first time out by five lengths. The horse I have reference to worked on two different occasions a half mile in 472, which in actual work is the same as running it in 46 and a fraction. I know of a heavy commission that will be placed on same out of town, and besides having watched this horse, know of the plans of the connections on TUES-DAY. This horse is absolutely fit and ready and the price we will get on account of the size of the field should be about 10-1.

HIGH PRIVATE, 15-1, won,

NOTE.

The size of the field is of no consequence at Belmont, as the broad, straight courses give every horse an equal chance and, as this borse in the barrier course of the barrier course, and more of the barrier course, and more of the barrier course, and the barrier course, as ying that he will be in front by the time the first hundred yands are run, and will maintain the lead to the end. It is an exceptional opnortunity to take advantage of something that can only come through legitimate information, as this herse has never started, and in his next start after TIEEDAY, will not be quoted over 3-1, as there are few horses at Belmont that can take any fiberties with him and he will beat a great many more than ever beat him from now until they come to Sheepshead.
